look homeward angel is an american coming of age story the novel is considered to be autobiographical and the character of Eugene Gant is generally believed to be a depiction of Thomas Wolfe himself set in the fictional town and state of Altamont, Catawba. It covers the span of time from Eugene's birth to the age of 19. Of Time and the River is the continuation of the story of Eugene Gant, detailing his early and mid-twenties during that time Eugene attends Harvard University, moves to New York City, teaches English at a university there, and travels overseas with his friend Francis Starbuck. You can't go home again. George Webber has written a successful novel about his family and hometown. When he returns to that town, he is shaken by the force of outrage and hatred that greets him. Family and lifelong friends feel naked and exposed by what they have seen in his books, and their fury drives him from his home. Outcast, George Webber begins a search for his own identity. It takes him to New York and a hectic social whirl to Paris with an uninhibited group of expatriates to Berlin, lying cold and sinister under Hitler's shadow.

Literary critics ranked him with Dickens, Dostoevsky, Tolstoy, Melville. His vibrant autobiographical novels, Look Homeward, Angel and Of Time and the River, won Thomas Wolfe the admiration of his peers and writers as various as Jack Kerouac, Norman Mailer, and Kurt Vonnegut. Have acknowledged a debt to him with extracts from his personal papers as well as trenchant reviews of his work and cogent assessments of his genius. This handsomely illustrated volume poignantly recounts the course of Wolfe's career and literary reputation. Ted Mitchell is co-director of the Thomas Wolfe Memorial in Asheville, North Carolina, where he lives.

A portrait of an American novelist examining the forces of his life that were intertwined with his writing and the academic and literary worlds of which he was a part.
